

WAS KILLED?

His Body Found in Prospect Park Lake, Brooklyn.

Many Suspicious Circumstances Attending His Death.

The body of James Hodgson, forty-five years old, of Myrtle avenue, near Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, was found this morning in Prospect Park lake near the new bridge. In his pockets were a number of cards of the J. G. Smith Manufacturing Company, of 22 John street, New York, and a letter addressed to Charles Winterborn, 672 Butler street. Winterborn identified the body.

Hodgson was employed by the Smith Manufacturing Company as a salesman.

His death was the father-in-law of E. A. Capen, a wholesale stationer at 100 William street.

Mr. Capen was greatly shocked to learn of Mr. Hodgson's death, and started at once for the Brooklyn morgue.

He expressed the opinion that the cause of his death was very suspicious.

The dead man was a widower. His only child was Mr. Capen's wife.

His motive still a mystery.

Police Fuzzed to Account for the Mystery.

Paterson, N. J., Sept. 28.—Every effort possible is being made today by the police to ferret out the real motive that prompted seventy-four-year-old Frederick Meiberg to murder his only son, John Meiberg, and then kill himself here yesterday afternoon.

It is thought by some that his mind had become unbalanced because of a law suit which threatened to deprive him of his property.

Meiberg lived at 153 Wayne avenue. He quarreled frequently with his wife, it is said, and was known to be a violent man.

Meiberg's son, John, was a well-to-do man. He was married and had a family.

Meiberg was sent for Mrs. Howell yesterday. She was a neighbor of his.

When she arrived, she found Meiberg in a state of great excitement.

He was talking of going to the police and making a complaint against his wife.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

He was then taken to the police station, where he was held for some time.

He was then released, and went home.

NORFOLK SAILLED TO-DAY.

No More Cholera Cases in Town or Down the Bay.

Health Department, New York, Sept. 28.—10 A. M.

Official: No cases of cholera have appeared in this city since the arrival of the ship.

CHARLES G. WILSON, President. EMMONS CLARK, Secretary.

Quarantine, Sept. 28.—Up to 9:30 this morning no report had been received by Health Officer Jenkins from the lower bay.

During the day the St. Johns, a steamer, was reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

The St. Johns is a steamer, and is reported to have arrived from the lower bay.

MAY BE HANNAH'S STRANGLER

Inspector Steers Sends to Reading, Pa., After a Suspect.

Clarence Almy Expected to Solve the Glendale Mystery.

Chief Inspector Steers thinks he has caught the murderer of Hannah Robinson, the girl who was found dead in Myers lane, Glendale, N. Y., on Sunday, Aug. 3, 1891.

The suspected man is Clarence Almy, who is now in jail at Reading, Pa. Inspector Steers has sent a man to Reading to investigate the evidence against Almy and arrange for his extradition.

This is all the Inspector will say about the case this morning.

When arrested Almy had a newspaper clipping giving an account of the murder of Hannah Robinson, and in it was folded a lock of what is believed to be the dead girl's hair.

The murder of Hannah Robinson was the sensation of a year ago and puzzled the detectives of New York, Brooklyn and Long Island.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

She started for New York Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1, 1891, with $12. That night she was found floating in the Hudson river, about a mile from the city.

The girl was a domestic in the house of Rev. Thomas W. Martin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Westchester, near Newburgh, on the Poughkeepsie road.

GRACE AND HARRY CONFERENCE

Speakers for the Big Republican Meeting To-Night.

School Board Knarred at Cam; Work Among the School Children.

Mr. Richard Croker was asked by an Evening World reporter today if it was true that Congressman Bourke Cockran had withdrawn from the National League of Women's Suffrage.

"There is no truth in the story," said Mr. Croker. "Mr. Cockran has been compelled by an affection of the throat and by weakened eyes to take a rest. His physician peremptorily commanded it. As soon as he is recovered he will again go on the stump for the National League. He will make thirty speeches in New York State in October."

With regard to the report started in Republican papers that there was dissatisfaction in Tammany Hall with the conduct of the campaign, and that the dissatisfaction was approaching the dimensions of a revolt, Mr. Croker declared, with great earnestness: "That is of a piece with other Republican statements, a lot of whole cloth. Tammany Hall is united in its campaign, and we shall win. Mr. Cleveland will receive the organization's unanimous and earnest support."

Mr. Cleveland's Coming.

Distinguished leaders are gathering in the city, drawn by the proposed visit of ex-President Cleveland, who, it is announced today, will be here Friday morning. Ex-Secretary of State Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware; Senator Gorman, of Maryland, and Gov. Flower are to come.

Mr. Cleveland will leave Buffalo's Bay to-morrow evening. He will remain in the city until after the conventions of the State League and National Association of Democratic Clubs, the latter of which he is expected to address.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.

The National Association of Democratic Clubs will be organized in the city to-morrow evening. The Republicans have arranged for a rival demonstration at the same time.